Con't

Over the past few weeks the transition period for the relevant duties to be passed to the newly elected officials has commenced.

The new management committee will now formally take over all day to day and on going operations of the mission. It is the intention of the new management team to choose a suitable Executive Committee to assist and support them in their objectives over the course of their elected period and details regards the new Executive Team will be announced shortly directly via the new management.

The new management team will also be holding an AGM during which they will introduce themselves as well as explain their proposed objectives for the coming elected term. This has provisionally been scheduled for the 13th December 2015, however further details will be communicated directly via the new management team in advance of this date, including a detailed agenda. Please do note the audited accounts for the Mission are now available on the Mission website and can be downloaded.

The Executive Team wish to thank you for your patience during this transitional period. We have found this to be an extremely inclusive election, based upon the independent detail provided by the Election Reform Service and the numbers of individuals who have participated.

We thank you again and request your support during the upcoming term of the new management.

Brother Saqib Rizvi

Electoral Reform Services can confirm that, as far as reasonably practicable, every person whose name appeared on the electoral roll supplied to us for the purpose of the ballot:-

- a) was sent the details of the ballot and
- b) if they chose to participate in the ballot, had their vote fairly and accurately recorded.

All voting material will be stored for twelve months.

Yours sincerely
